At 12.32 p.m.

Present: Sh. Trilok Chand, Id. Counsel for plaintiff.
Sh. Y.K. Sharma, Id. Counsel for defendant no.1.
Sh. Rohit Chandra, proxy for Sh. Naveen Singla, Id.

Counsel for defendant no.2.

At this stage, Counsel for defendant no.1 started tying his band in the court room itself.

Counsel for defendant no.1 is directed to tie his band outside the court room as the same amounts to lower the decorum of the court.

Upon hearing such direction ld. Counsel for defendant no.1 started misbehaving with the court and started yelling loudly and threatened the court that he will tie the band in front of the court itself. Counsel for defendant no.1 further submits that he is a freelancer and the court is his servant and works for them and he always ties his band in the court room itself. Counsel for defendant no.1 remained without band throughout the time which amounts to threat. From his expression and deeds he was trying to put the court under pressure. The demeanour and conduct of the counsel for defendant no.1 towards the court is highly condemnable which amounts to contempt of the court.

The conduct of counsel for defendant no.1 namely Sh. Y.K. Sharma is highly objectional and cannot be tolerated in any manner. Counsel for defendant no.1 also wasted the precious time of the court.

Therefore, in view of the above facts and circumstances, now the undersigned does not wish to try and entertain the present suit and requests to Ld. Principal District & Sessions Judge, Shahdara District, Delhi to transfer the same to some other court.

Ld. Principal District & Sessions Judge, Shahdara District,
