

Common order below Exh.1 & 78 in C.C. No.162/SS/2017

(Shantilal Vs. M/s Exotic & Ors.)

Complainant firm is represented by its partner Shantilal who is present in person. Said Shantilal appears to have been authorized vide authority letter dated 30/01/2017 whose verified copy is filed on record. Heard Ld. Adv. Shri Gadekar for the complainant.

2. Said authorized person Mr. Shantilal stated that he has received the entire cheque amount and nothing remains to be recovered in the present case. He submitted about voluntary unconditional withdrawn. Hence, considering the full and final settlement between the parties with regard to the disputed cheque and presence of voluntariness, the complaint is disposed of being amicably withdrawn unconditionally.

3. The matter is for cross examination of CW no. 1 as per order dated 15/04/2025, at Exh. 71. Court fees be returned to complainant as per the provisions of law.

4. Accused no. 1 to 7 are acquitted of the offence punishable under section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act.

5. The order is dictated in open Court in presence and hearing of the complainant.
