Case No-885/2022

State vs Suraj Pasi and other

Case Crime No-189/2020

U/S-188,269,270 IPC

P.S.-Nababganj, District- Prayagraj

Date:-13.08.2022 (Lok Adalat)

The present matter has been taken up today. In the present matter, application u/s 321 CrPC has been filed by ld. APO by stating that the Uttar Pradesh government has decided to withdraw the cases related to Epidemic Act and other such cases which are punishable upto two years of imprisonment and which have been registered against public in violation of covid-19 protocol during lockdown period. Ld. APO has also submitted that in this regard the state government, in compliance of direction given by Hon'ble High Court, has issued G.O.. Hence it has been prayed by ld. APO that the present case be permitted to withdraw.

Heard the ld. APO and perused the provision of section 321 CrPC and Government Order issued in this regard.

From the perusal it appears that in the interest of general public, the cases related to the violation of lockdown are being withdrawn by the state government, which is generally a policy decision of the state government. This decision of the government will benefit the general public.

In view of the above facts and circumstances, application u/s 321 CrPC, filed by the ld. APO is liable to be allowed.

Order

Application u/s section 321 Crpc filed by ld APO is allowed. The ld APO is allowed to withdraw the case. The prosecution case is withdrawn and the accused are acquitted in the above-mentioned offence. File be consigned to record room as per rules.
