

OS No.257/2011

Case called out before Lok-Adalath.

11.07.2026.

Plaintiff and Counsel present. Defendant No.3 and his counsel present and filed Joint memo.

Defendant No.1 and 2 are the vendors of defendant No.3 and now the said purchaser compromised with the plaintiff and settled the dispute. Plaintiff has no claim as against defendant No.1 and 2 as they are the family members of plaintiff and vendors of defendant no.3. Now the matter is settled between the plaintiff and purchaser and the said Joint memo is acceptable one and it is not against public policy.

The contents of the Joint memo are read over to both side parties. The parties voluntarily admitted the contents of the Joint memo. The Joint memo bears the signatures of plaintiff and defendant No.3 and their respective counsel. Joint memo is found to be lawful and voluntary one and hence it is accepted. Accordingly, I proceed to pass the following :

ORDER

The Joint memo filed by the plaintiff and defendant No.3 is hereby allowed.

The instant suit is hereby disposed off as per the Joint memo.

Parties are directed to bear their own cost.

Joint memo shall be treated as part and parcel of the Decree.

Draw final decree accordingly.

(Haseen Taj)
Advocate Conciliator

(Vijayalaxmi Ghanapur)
Judicial Conciliator