Sh. Sat Narain Sharma, counsel for the accused Atul Kumar.

Today, the matter is listed for filing exact state of affairs of the wife of the accused Atul Kumar.

Reply filed.

Arguments heard. Interim bail has been sought by the accused to make him enable to look after his ailing wife. It is submitted by the counsel for the accused that vide order dated 27.02.2015, accused was granted regular bail by the court but the said order was challenged by the complainant before the Hon'ble High Court and Hon'ble High Court was pleased to allow the prayer of the complainant and Hon'ble Apex Court did not interfere with the decision of the High Court of Delhi. It is further submitted that in pursuance of the said order, the accused had surrendered before the jail superintendent and since then in judicial custody. It is further submitted that wife of the accused has been diagnosed with medical ailments and requiring urgent attention. It is also submitted that there is no only in the family of the accused who would take care of his wife and the date of the operation had not been taken as the child of the accused is 2 years old and if the wife of the accused admitted in the hospital, then there is no one in the family of the accused to look after his son and wife. Medical documents are annexed with the application. The same have been got verified. Considering the facts and circumstance, the accused is granted interim bail till 09.07.2018 on furnishing personal bond in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- with one surety in the like amount. Accused is directed to surrender before the jail superintendent on 10.07.2018. With the above directions, the application stands disposed of.

Put up on the date already fixed i.e. 11.07.2018.

Copy of the order be given dasti. Copy thereof be also sent to the jail superintendent for information and compliance.
