and
Misc. DJ ADJ 422/25
Kuldeep Handa v. Rakesh Shankla

21.07.2026

Present: Ms. Rajni Vohra Ld. counsel for DH/applicant.
Sh. Sarthak Kapoor Ld. counsel for JD/respondent.

Notice sent through speed post stated to have been delivered. The original speed post receipt alongwith print out from the website India Post have been handed over in the court but the same is returned for re-filing after e-filing during the course of the day.

At this stage, Ld. counsel has appeared for LR and he has also moved an application under Order 22 Rule 4 CPC alongwith an application under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC. Copy supplied.

Proposed LR Jyoti has filed application in the Misc. DJ ADJ which is under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC seeking substitution. The DH has also filed an application seeking substitution of deceased through his LR Jyoti in the execution petition.

Both the applications are since claiming that Jyoti is LR and needs to be impleaded. The application is accordingly allowed.

Proposed LR Jyoti is directed to file affidavit giving details of all the LRs left behind by the deceased defendant/JD.

JD is directed to appear in person on the NDOH.

List the matter on 12.08.2026.
