

Plaintiff, defendants Nos.1 to 4 and their respective counsels present before this court. After long deliberation, both parties have agreed to settle the matter amicably. Both of them have filed compromise petition U/o 23 Rule 3 of CPC seeking leave of the court to compromise the matter. The terms of the compromise are read over and explained to both the parties in the language known to them. They have stated that they entered into compromise out of their own will and wish, without any force or coercion. Perused, the compromise petition it appears that terms of the compromise petition are fair and legal. Both parties are identified by their respective counsels. Hence, there is no impediment to accept the compromise petition. Therefore, I proceed to pass following:-

ORDER

The compromise petition filed by the both parties is hereby allowed. Parties are permitted to compromise the matter. The suit is disposed of as compromised. Draw final decree accordingly, in terms of compromise petition and compromise petition is part and parcel of the decree.

C/C I Addl. Civil Judge & JMFC.,
Soraba.