

Complainant is present. Complainant filed sworn statement by way of affidavit along with original documents. Perused the complaint and the original documents Produced.

Cognizance taken.

Examined the complaint, annexed documents and sworn statement of the complainant filed by way of affidavit. There is 06 days delay in filing the complaint and the delay was condoned by order dt: 20.11.2018. The mandatory provisions required for the initiation of the proceedings for the offence punishable under section 138 of NI Act are complied. There are sufficient grounds to Proceed against the accused for the offence punishable under section 138 of NI Act. Therefore, the office shall register criminal case against the accused for the offence Punishable under section 138 of NI Act in register No III.

The learned counsel appearing for the complainant filed memo and furnished the Mobile number of the accused. Hence Issue summons to the accused through SMS.

For appearance of accused by 14.01.2019

XVII ASCJ & ACMM, Bengaluru.