It is 02:00 PM:

Present: Sh. Sarthak Sisodia, counsel for the petitioner/applicant.

By this order, I shall dispose of the application for transfer of the case bearing CR Case no.6161/2019 titled as “State Vs. Ankur Rajput & Ors.” and Ct. Case no.12606//2018 titled as “Abhilasha Chauhan Vs. Ankur Rajput & Ors.” pending in the court of Ms. Priya Janghu, Ld. JMFC (Mahila Court)-02, South-West, Dwarka Courts, Delhi.

I have heard counsel for the applicant and have perused the material available on record. In my opinion, the application can be disposed of straightway without issuing notice to the non-applicant.

Perusal of the record reveals that CR Case no.6161/2019 titled “State Vs. Ankur Rajput & Ors.” and Ct. Case no.12606//2018 titled “Abhilasha Chauhan Vs. Ankur Rajput & Ors.” are pending in the court of Ms. Priya Janghu, Ld. JMFC (Mahila Court)-02, South-West, Dwarka Courts, Delhi. The grievance of the applicant relates to the proceedings conducted in those case and the same are as follows:

- (i) that despite directions given by the Hon’ble Delhi High Court, the concerned court has not expedited the proceedings;
- (ii) that the concerned court has not complied its own order dated 29.10.2024 vide which the accused therein were directed to appear physically before it;
- (iii) that in Criminal Case no.6161/2019, the concerned court passed order on charge without recording the submission of the applicant; and
- (iv) that the concerned court has not granted the relief as sought by the applicant under Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005.

Hence, it is pleaded that the applicant has the apprehension that she would not get justice from the concerned court.

In view of the foregoing discussion and on perusal of the record, it can be held that the grievance of the applicant relates to the judicial proceedings and the orders passed in the above mentioned cases. If it is so, the applicant can avail appropriate remedy available under law for redressal of her grievances. In fact, as submitted by counsel for the applicant, the applicant has already filed the criminal revision against the order on charge passed in CR Case no.6161/2019. Hence, I am of the opinion that the present application is devoid of merit. Accordingly, the application is dismissed.

File be consigned to Record Room.

Copy of this order be sent to the concerned court.
