RAMANAND CHAUDHARY

Vs.

AARGEE CONSTRUCTS PVT. LTD. AND ORS.

12.05.2026

Present :- Ld. Proxy Counsel for the parties.

ORDER

Vide this order, the Court shall decide the application filed by the plaintiff under Order XII Rule 6 CPC seeking judgment on admissions.

Brief Facts

The plaintiff seeks a decree of Rs.1,84,174/- on the basis of a Ledger Account dated 18.07.2017, alleging it contains clear admissions of liability towards salary and Imprest CR Balance.

The defendants oppose the application contending that the said document is part of a full and final settlement, pursuant to which payments have already been made and accepted by the plaintiff. It is further submitted that serious disputed questions exist regarding settlement, resignation/termination, and accounts between the parties.

Analysis

Order XII Rule 6 CPC can be invoked only on clear, unambiguous, and unconditional admissions. Where the alleged admission is disputed or requires adjudication of contested facts, no decree can be passed.

In the present case, the nature and effect of the document dated 18.07.2017 is seriously disputed. While the plaintiff treats it as an admission of liability, the defendants claim it is a full and final settlement with payment already made.

These issues require evidence and trial and cannot be decided summarily.

Order

The application under Order XII Rule 6 CPC is dismissed.

Nothing herein shall affect the merits of the suit.

Put up for PE on 02.07.2026.

List of witnesses be filed by both the parties within a period of two weeks from today with advance copy to the opposite party against acknowledgment.

Affidavits of evidence of all the witnesses of the plaintiff be filed within a period of two weeks from today with advance copies to Ld. Counsel for the defendant atleast three days prior to the next date of hearing.

Plaintiff witnesses are directed to be present in person on the next date of hearing.
