

CNR No:PBBT030142152024 CASE No:NACT-1345-2024

Shriram Finance Company Limited Vs Gurmeet singh

Present: Sh.Shanky Kumar, Advocate for complainant.

Today, the case was fixed for recording the statement of the serving/executing constable regarding the execution of proclamation proceedings against the accused. The executing constable appeared before the Court and his statement was duly recorded on 10.08.2026. In his statement, he proved the proclamation as Ex.PX and his execution report as Ex.PY. The serving constable has specifically deposed that the proclamation proceedings against the accused were executed on 06.08.2026 in accordance with law. The statement of the serving constable has been perused and taken on record. From his deposition, it prima facie appears that the proclamation was duly executed and the report in that regard has also been placed on the judicial file. However, as per law, the Court is required to wait for the mandatory statutory period of 30 days after the recording of the statement regarding execution of proclamation to afford sufficient opportunity to the accused to appear before the Court. Accordingly, the case is adjourned to 10.09.2026 for awaiting the presence/appearance of the accused and for completion of the mandatory statutory period of 30 days from today i.e. 10.08.2026.
