.....Petitioner/Accused

Vs.

State Rep. by
The Inspector of Police,
Vellakovil Police station
(Cr.No.410/2022)

.....Respondent/Complainant

This petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.K.K.Balachandran, Advocate for the petitioner and Thiru.S.Kanagasabapathy, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this court delivers the following :

ORDER

1. The petitioner is apprehending arrest for the offences punishable u/s.294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) IPC had filed this petition u/s.438 of Cr.P.C. seeking for his release on bail in the event of arrest.

2. According to the petitioner that on 08.10.2022, the defacto complainant travelled with his vehicle and dashed with his car and abused filthy language and beaten with iron rod on his head and threatened him. Hence, he gave the complaint. The defacto complainant gave false complaint against the petitioner. He has not committed any offence. He will not abscond or tamper the witnesses. He is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this court and willing to produce sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of this court and hence prays to grant anticipatory bail to him.

3. The learned Public Prosecutor has submitted that the investigation is pending, if the petitioners are released on bail he will abscond or tamper the witnesses, he will indulge in same type of offences and hence the prosecution side strongly opposed for grant of bail to the petitioners and prays for dismissal of the petition.

4. The petitioner was said to have committed offences u/s.294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) IPC. The CMP.Nos.1963/2022 and 1958/2022 are arising out of case and counter. There is a delay in lodging the complaint. The incident is arising out of an accident for collusion of two vehicles and both the complainant in the cases suffered injury and they were admitted in hospital and later released on bail. Considering the above circumstances, this court is inclined to consider the bail application and the petition is allowed.

In the result, the petitioner shall be released on bail in the event of his arrest or in the event of his surrender before the Judicial Magistrate, Kangayam within 15 days from today, on their executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- each with 2 sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Kangayam with a condition that the petitioner is directed to stay at Uthukuli and sign before Uthukuli Police Station daily morning at 10.00 a.m., for 30 days, thereafter he should appear before the court concerned on receipt of summon.

The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression and the Judicial Magistrate shall obtain the copy of their Aadhar cards or bank pass books to ensure their identity.

The petitioner shall not try to contact, influence, threaten or pressurize the victim or complainant or other material witnesses and shall not tamper with the evidence and shall appear before the respondent / Investigation Officer as and when required for investigation.

On breach of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate, Kangayam is directed to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with the law as laid out in the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji in AIR 2005 SCW 5506.

If the petitioner absconds, a fresh F.I.R shall be registered u/s.229(A) of IPC.

Given by me, this the 14th day of October, 2022.

Principal Sessions Judge,
Tiruppur.
