

Suit No: 611120/16

Seema Mittal vs The Jammu & Kashmir Bank Ltd

16.10.2018

Present: Sh. Naresh Kumar, counsel for plaintiff.

None for defendants.

An application has been moved by plaintiff seeking directions to defendant to produce remaining documents. Copy of said application is kept on judicial record which may be given to defendant or his counsel against acknowledgment.

It is stated that said application is filed merely in continuation of earlier application moved under order 11 Rule 12 of CPC which is pending for disposal. This is more than 5 years old matter. Considering the past conduct, I do not deem it fit to adjourn the matter further for arguments on application under Order 11 Rule 12 of CPC.

As present application is moved merely in continuation of earlier application, hence there is no requirement for giving notice of present application.

Arguments heard on both applications.

Defendant is at liberty to file written submissions, if any atleast one week prior to next date of hearing.

Be listed for orders on 03.11.2018 at 04:00 PM.
