

The order since pertains to a family matter, in which details of allegations levelled by the parties have been made and discussed, therefore, it is not in the interest of the general public and in particular the privacy of the parties that the order/judgment is uploaded on the website, as it might have an adverse impact on their personal lives by uploading the same. In view of aforesaid reasons, the order/judgment is not being uploaded; whereas, the order/judgment has been duly signed in the open Court and placed in the file and shall be made available under Copying Rules and only parties to lis or through their counsel can apply for the same as per Copying Rules.