

MANRJA No.25/2022.
Suraiyya Iqbal Patel Vs. Nil.
CNR NO.MHJG050041432022

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT 01.

Application under Section 152 of the CPC, is raised, requiring the Court to correct the error appearing in the clause No.2 of the operative order dated 18.08.2021 passed by this Court in Civil M.A.No.256/2021, on the ground that instead of “in favour of applicant Nos.1 to 5” the clause No.2 of said operative order state that of “in favour of applicant Nos.1 to 3”. Therefore, that error is required to be corrected.

2. Heard Shri.Ismail Patel, advocate for the applicant. Gone through the record. The order below Exh.26 in Civil M.A.No. 256/2021 (copy whereof) is filed with list Exh.3, itself is eloquent that, that the R & P of Civil M.A.No. 256/2021 (disposed off) is called by this Court, for the purpose issuing Heir-Ship Certificate. During its course the above noted error was noticed and therefore the present application.

3. The proceeding Civil M.A.No. 256/2021 is uncontested. The impugned error is apparent and is typographical mistake. Therefore, there is no hitch to correct the same by invoking section 152 of the CPC. Therefore, application succeeds. Hence, following order.

ORDER

1. The application is allowed.
2. In clause No.2 of the operative order dated 18.08.2021 passed in Civil M.A. No.256/2021 words “in favour of applicants No.1 to 3” be replaced/substituted by “in favour of applicant Nos.1 to 5”.

3. The proceeding is accordingly disposed off.
4. Concerned to note and act accordingly.

Jalgaon

Date : 03.12.2022.

(N. G. Deshpande)

3rd Jt. Civil Judge, S.D., Jalgaon.