It is submitted by the Ld. Counsel that the applicant/accused is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case and is suffering incarceration on account of such false implication. Ld. It is further submitted that the alleged recovery of 2.998 Kg of Opium in the present case was not from the physical or conscious possession of the applicant, but is stated to be from a parcel lying in the office of DHL warehouse. and the applicant/accused. It is contended that alleged link of the applicant is only based on a vague identification. It is further submitted that no public witness or independent witness was joined at the time of alleged recovery proceedings. With these submissions, prayer is made for grant of regular bail.

On the other hand, Ld. Chief PP for the state has strongly opposed the present bail application of the accused on the ground that commercial quantity of contraband was recovered in the present case, hence there is bar u/s 37 of NDPS Act in the present case. Ld. Chief PP further submits that the allegations against the accused are serious in nature and the possibility of tempering of evidence and influencing of witness and fleeing away from the justice cannot be ruled out in case applicant/accused is admitted on bail. With these submissions prayer is made for the dismissal of the present application.

Brief facts of the case are that on 07.02.2026 on receipt a secret information, a raid was conducted at DHL Warehouse, Rama Road, Moti Nagar, Delhi and 2.998 Kg of Opium was recovered from a parcel. Thereafter, during further investigation, police officials reached at the DD Courier Services Railway Road, Bhatinda to trace the sender of the abovesaid parcel and applicant/accused was identified by the Courier Operator as the alleged sender. Accordingly, the active role of the accused is revealed in dispatching the abovesaid contraband to a foreign country. It is further alleged that when the accused noticed the presence of police party, he attempted to flee in his swift car, but was chased and apprehended. Thereafter, further search was carried out as per the provisions of NDPS Act and further recovery of 23 grams of Opium was effected from the possession of accused/applicant. Further, as per the investigation of the case, other co-accused persons were also arrested in the present case and the analysis of mobile of accused persons affirmed their connectivity with each other. Moreover, there is also suspicious financial link or connectivity of the accused/applicant with the other accused persons. Meaning thereby, the accused persons are involved in the alleged criminal conspiracy as they were in regular touch with each others & had made number of calls to each other and are alleged to have links with an international syndicate operating from Canada.

The investigation of the case is under progress. The other accused persons/suspects are yet to be arrested. The allegations against the applicant/accused are grave and serious in nature. Considering the facts of the case and keeping in view the submissions, there are apprehension that in case applicant/accused is enlarged on bail, there are every chances of his fleeing from course of justice or may commit the similar offence again. Hence, considering the facts of the case and seriousness of the allegations against the applicant/accused, no ground is made out for grant of regular bail to the accused, at this stage. Hence, the present application is dismissed.
