Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioners submits that no such application under section 482 of the B.N.S.S., 2023/438 of Cr.P.C. is either rejected or pending before the Hon'ble High Court at Calcutta prior to this application.

It is submitted by the Learned Advocate appearing for the accused/petitioners that the petitioners are completely innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. The allegations levelled against them are totally false, fabricated, concocted story based on falsehood and they are the victim of circumstances. As such, prayer has been made for granting anticipatory bail.

Learned P.P.-in-charge places the C.D. and raises objection to the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Heard both the sides.

Perused the case record and the materials available in the C.D.

Considered.

As per the materials available in the case diary, it appears that the incident of post poll violence occurred in the year 2021 and the F.I.R. was registered in the year 2026.

Having regard to the nature of allegations made against the present accused/petitioners their complicity in committing the alleged offence, and taking note of the delayed F.I.R., I am of the considered view that custodial interrogation of the present accused/petitioners for the purpose of investigation is not required. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the present accused/petitioners under section 482 of B.N.S.S., 2023/438 of Cr.P.C. is allowed.

Accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest, the present accused/petitioners may be enlarged on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.5,000/- each with two registered sureties of Rs.2,500/- each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer, subject to compliance of the condition as laid down in sub-section (2) of Section 438 of Cr.P.C./482(2) of the B.N.S.S., 2023.

The instant Criminal Misc. Case is thus disposed of.

Return the C.D.
