

FIR No. 62/2021

PS : Mundka

State Vs. Sachin@Manda@Pardhan

U/s 365/392/397/411/34 IPC

29.07.2022

File taken up today on an application u/s 439 Cr.P.C seeking grant of bail moved on behalf of applicant/accused Sachin@Manda@Pradhan.

Present : Sh. Alok Saxena, Ld. Addl. PP for State.
Sh. L.D. Mual, Ld Counsel for the above named applicant/accused.

I have heard arguments on the bail application from both the sides and perused the record and reply.

It is argued that applicant is in J.C since 01.02.2021. It is further argued that applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case on the instance of family and village feud. It is argued that applicant never put any pistol on the complainant. It is further argued that the vehicle which was stolen was never recovered at the instance of applicant. Trial will take time. Applicant is no more required for any custodial interrogation and as such, no purpose would be served in keeping the applicant behind bar. It is, therefore, prayed that present applicant may be enlarged on bail by imposing any condition which this Hon'ble Court may deem appropriate.

Application has been strongly opposed on behalf of the State on the ground that the allegations against the applicant are direct and very serious in nature. He alongwith co-accused committed robbery by using pistol. It is also argued the stolen vehicle was recovered at the instance of applicant. It is also argued that applicant has refused to participate in the TIP proceedings. It is also argued that matter is at the initial stage of trial and charge has not been framed.

In rebuttal, it is argued that applicant refused to participate in the TIP proceedings as he was already shown to the witness by the police prior to the TIP proceedings.

I have considered rival submissions.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, seriousness of the allegations against the applicant and the fact that charge has not been framed in this case, I am not inclined to grant bail to the applicant. Therefore, bail application stands dismissed.

Copy of order be given dasti.

Put up on the date fixed.

(POORAN CHAND)
ASJ-02/West/Delhi
29.07.2022