FIR No. 38/2026
PS: Crime Branch West Delhi
State Vs. Ashish Kumar (Applicant

20.04.2026

Present: Sh. Subhash Chauhan, Ld. Chief PP for the State.
Applicant alongwith Ld. Counsel.

This is an application filed on behalf of applicant Ashish Kumar for the release of vehicle TCS NTORQ 125 Race XP DL-9S CU 6645.

Reply to the present application already filed by the IO. Copy also supplied.

File perused. Arguments heard.

By way of present application, Ld. Counsel submits that applicant Ashish is the registered and lawful owner of the abovesaid vehicle in question. Ld. Counsel further submits that the vehicle is seized in the present case from accused and prays for its release on Superdari.

As per the reply of the IO, applicant is stated to be the registered owner of the vehicle in question, which is used by the accused Rahul Kumar @ Vishal in the commission of the offence pertaining to the NDPS Act. IO has further explained that the vehicle in question was continuously used by the accused in his work and same was purchased in the name of applicant only due to insufficient papers of accused. IO has further explained that applicant was interrogated in this regard and it is revealed that the vehicle in question was purchased in his name by the brother of the accused namely Rohit as they were friends since long and same was used by the family of the said Rohit. IO further explained that applicant became aware of the seizure of the vehicle in question only through is abovesaid friend Rohit. Further, the said Rohit also apprised the applicant that his presence is necessary for releasing of the vehicle in question.

No reasonable explanation is given by the applicant as to why the family of the accused and Rohit were continuously using the vehicle in question. Even the applicant has failed to explain as to on which date the vehicle in question was given to the accused Rahul Kumar or his friend for use. Considering the facts of the case, it is apparent that in case of release of the vehicle in question, the applicant might again give the same to the abovesaid Rohit or any other person for its misuse or in commission of any other offence. The investigation of the present case is under progress. Hence, considering the facts and circumstance of the present case, the application of applicant is dismissed, at this stage.

Copy of this order be given dasti, as prayed.
