

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Kuldeep Singh

Present: Advocate Sh.Mohit Sareen, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

M/s Delhi Bitumen Sales Agency V/s M/s Galaxy Industries & Anr.

Present: Advocate Sh.Harish Bansal, counsel for complainant.

Proclamations issued against the accused already received back duly executed.

Statements of Serving Constable have already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamations Ex.PA and his reports as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused are absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Bajaj Finance Ltd. V/s Karan Sharma

Present: Advocate Sh.Varun Katyal, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Sudhir

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Sajad Ali

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Dilbag Singh V/s Virenderjit Mala

Present: Advocate Sh.Arun Bassi, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Ramesh

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Rajwanti

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

HDFC Ltd. V/s Pawan Kumar

Present: Advocate Sh.T.S.Sudan, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

HDFC Ltd. V/s Rajni Rani

Present: Advocate Sh.T.S.Sudan, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kailash Nath Sikri V/s Sumit Kumar

Present: Advocate Sh.Arun Bassi, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Vikram

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Sanjiv

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Nawab Ali Wazir

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

HDFC Bank Ltd. V/s Ajay Kumar

Present: Advocate Sh.H.S.Kathpal, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Ram Kumar V/s Puran Singh

Present: Advocate Sh.Naresh Kumar Bansal, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Meenakshi V/s Pankaj Sharma

Present: Advocate Sh.Nitin Arora, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Sanjeev Kumar

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III

Kotak Mahindra Bank V/s Sunil Tilka

Present: Advocate Sh.Inderjit Singh, counsel for complainant.

Proclamation issued against the accused already received back duly executed. Statement of Serving Constable has already been recorded wherein he has proved proclamation Ex.PA and his report as Ex.PB. The period of 30 days has elapsed. Accused did not put in appearance. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that accused is absconding. Intimation regarding accused being absconding/proclaimed person be sent to the SHO concerned through the Naib Court for making entry in his relevant register. Learned counsel for the complainant stated at bar that the preliminary evidence of complainant may be read as evidence U/s 299 Cr.P.C. Since the list of property of accused has not been furnished, proceedings under Section 83 of Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated. File be consigned to the record room and will be taken up again as and when accused arrested or surrenders or complainant furnishes some list of properties.

Ahlmad is directed to separate the copy of PO order and send the intimation to Manager of bank for the attachment of account of accused from which cheque in question has been issued under intimation to this Court.

Pronounced in open Court on 22.01.2018

Baljinder Kaur, (PCS)
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class,
Chandigarh/UID No.:PB0329.

Dharamvir/Stenographer Gr-III