Exh.: 6

Applicant/accused : Pratap Alkabhai Dhirabhai Bagora(Bhagora)
(At present in Sabarmati Cental Jail)

V e r s u s

Opponent : The State of Gujarat.

SUB: APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY BAIL

PRESENT:

Ld. LADC. Mr. R.P. Patel for the Applicant/Accused.

Ld. A.P.P. Mr. A.M. Gulabani, for the Opponent-State.

::O R D E R::

1. The applicant/accused has preferred the present application to grant him temporary bail for a period of 30 days in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11192002250692/2025 registered with Aslali Police Station U/s 8(c), 22(b) 2(c) & 29 of the NDPS Act.
2. The Ld. Advocate for the applicant has submitted that since last 8 months, the applicant is in judicial custody. It is submitted by the Ld. Advocate for the applicant that applicant is having his wife and minor daughter and his minor daughter is studying in private school but since long time, applicant is in judicial custody therefore, financial condition of the applicant's family became very poor. It is further submitted that there is no one earning member in his family except the applicant and no one in his family to arrange the financial assistance for his family and therefore, if the applicant may be granted temporary bail for 30 days, he can arrange the financial assistance to his family and for the education of his children. Therefore, prayed to release on temporary bail of 30 days for financial assistance to family.

3. On service of notice, the investigating officer has produced affidavit vide Exh.4. The Ld APP has argued that, there is prima-facie case against the applicant in Aslali Police Station vide C.R. No. 11192002250692/2025 under section 8(c), 22(b) 2(c) & 29 of the NDPS Act. It is further submitted that the ground on which the applicant/accused has sought for temporary bail are not satisfactory because the applicant/accused has committed serious offence. Therefore, considering the seriousness and gravity offence, the Ld. APP has argued that the present application be rejected.
4. I have heard the Ld. Advocates for the parties. I have read the application, police report, documents produced by parties and the case record. It transpires that there is prima-facie case against the applicant in Aslali Police Station vide C.R. No.11192002250692/2025 under section 8(c), 22(b) 2(c) & 29 of the NDPS Act. As per record the applicant has not stated how he will arrange for financial assistance and the presence of the applicant does not appear necessary for the financial assistance of the family. Further, considering the Muddamal involved in the present case, which is of commercial quantity so, Section 37 of the NDPS Act is attracted. Hence, if the application is allowed, the applicant is likely to abscond and not remain present during trial. Hence, the following order is passed in the larger interest of justice.
