

Present:- APP for the State alongwith Sh. Navneet Singla Advocate.
All the accused persons on bail with Sh. S. S. Manshahia
Advocate.

File taken up in Pre-Lok Adalat. Complainant Varinder Kumar has already moved an application seeking permission to compound the offences with the accused persons. Statement of parties have already recorded in this regard. The accused have been charged sheeted in this case for the commission of offence under section 420/120-B of IPC. The offence under section 420 of IPC is compoundable with the permission of the Court. As argued by Id. Counsel for the complainant, I am of the considered opinion that compounding of the offences will be for the benefit of both the parties as it will facilitate the parties to live peacefully in future and to resolve their dispute permanently. As such, necessary permission is hereby granted to compound the offences. In view of the statement already made by the complainant as well as accused persons, offences are hereby compounded and accused persons are acquitted of the offences charged with.
