

Criminal Case No.402479/2025

:: Order Below Exh.1 (Charge Sheet) filed by Police ::

The case is filed under Gujarat Police Act, 1951, alleging violation of orders under Section 135(1). The Act mainly aims to maintain public order and allows police to take preventive measures, sometimes including arrest without warrant in urgent situations.

However, upon reading of Act, the Court observed that:

- Under the Act, only Section 90A, Section 118, and Section 143B are specifically declared cognizable offences.
- Section 135 (1) does not state that it is a cognizable offence.
- As per Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 Section 155(2) (Now BNSS S.174 (2)), police cannot investigate a non-cognizable offence without prior permission of the Magistrate.
- The maximum punishment under Section 135(1) is one years, which makes it non-cognizable and bailable according to Schedule-1 Part-II of the CrPC.

The Court also relied on judicial precedents, including Keshav Lal Thakur v. State of Bihar (1996), where the Supreme Court of India held that investigation of a non-cognizable offence without a Magistrate's order is illegal. Similar views were taken by the Gujarat High Court, Karnataka High Court, and Kerala High Court in other cases.

In this case, the police investigated the offence under Section 142 without obtaining permission from the Magistrate, which violated Section 155(2) CrPC (Now BNSS S.174 (2)). Therefore, the investigation and the charge sheet filed by the police are illegal and void. Applying the above principle, the Court held that all subsequent proceedings based on such investigation are also invalid.

Final Order

- The proceedings against the accused under Section 135(1) of the Gujarat Police Act are dropped.
- The prosecution is given liberty to take appropriate steps as per law.
- Any seized property (muddamal) shall be disposed of according to rules.
