Criminal Misc. Application No.76 of 2026

Exh.:

Applicant/accused : Mansukh Jivrajbhai Raval
[At present in Sabarmati
Central Jail, Ahmedabad.]

V e r s u s

Opponent : The State of Gujarat.

Subject: Application to get Temporary Bail for 30 days.

PRESENT:

Applicant-Accused-Party in Person

Mr. J.C. Patel, Ld. Public Prosecutor for the State.

::O R D E R::

1. This application has been preferred by the applicant-accused through the Jailor, Sabarmati Central Jail, Ahmedabad for granting him temporary bail for a period of 30 days in connection with the FIR being C. R. No.11192008250167/2025 registered with Bavla Police Station for the offences punishable U/s 103(1) of the Bharatiya Nyay Sanhita, 2023 r/w Section 135 of the G.P. Act.
2. Heard the applicant-accused as party in person and Ld. Public Prosecutor Mr. J.C. Patel for the State.
3. The applicant has submitted that he is in judicial custody since last 11 months. It is further submitted that in his family, there are his wife and two sons but his elder son is residing separately.

after his marriage and he does not keep any relation with his mother and younger brother. It is further submitted that applicant's younger son studied upto 9th standard only and there is no source of income, therefore, his family members are facing grave hardships to fulfill daily essentials. It is further submitted that by doing labour work through loading rickshaw, applicant was fulfilling the essentials daily needs of his family but at present no one earning member is in his family and therefore, the family members are in urgent need of financial assistance for their livelihood and hence, the applicant has filed the present application to get temporary bail for the period of 30 days. It is further submitted that applicant is having one Eicher vehicle on the loan from the private bank and the EMI of said vehicle is also remain unpaid since long time and one another Eicher vehicle is also on the loan and if the installments would not be paid timely, the bank would seize the vehicles and the applicant would loss his earning source of income and therefore, if the applicant may be enlarged on bail for the limited period, he can arrange the urgent need of financial assistance for the essential need. It is further contended that updation of necessary documents in the bank is also pending. It is further submitted that his family are facing grave hardships and if the applicant may be enlarged on temporary bail, he can arrange the financial assistance to his family members, therefore, on the aforesaid humanitarian ground, the applicant-accused has prayed to grant him 30 days temporary bail. It is further submitted that he is ready and willing to abide by all the terms and conditions in the event of he is being released on temporary bail and lastly prayed to allow the present application.

4. Per-contra, the Ld. Public Prosecutor for the State has strongly objected the present application and reiterated the facts of the report filed by the I.O. at Exh.2 and role attributed to the present applicant-accused in the commission of alleged offence and vehemently argued that the applicant/accused has sought 30 days temporary/interim bail on the ground to arrange the financial assistance to his family members as well as to update the KYC but the ground on which the applicant-accused has sought for temporary bail are not satisfactory because, the elder son of the applicant/accused is earning money by driving the vehicle and he is capable to fulfill the essential needs of the family member of the applicant/accused and therefore, there is no need of the applicant/accused for temporary bail. It is further submitted that the applicant/accused is of elder age, however, he has kept illicit relationship with the deceased. The applicant/accused has committed very serious offence of murder of deceased by inflicting knife and sharp cutting weapons blow. It is further submitted that earlier regular bail application of the applicant/accused has been rejected by this Hon'ble Court by considering the nature of gravity of offence. It is further submitted that the applicant-accused has committed very serious nature of offence and involved in the heinous crime and therefore, if the applicant-accused may be enlarged on temporary bail, he is likely to jump out the bail and flee away from justice and therefore, prayed to reject the present application.

5. Having regards to the contentions by the rival parties as well as considering the report of the investigating officer and the police papers, it transpires that the ground on which the the applicant-accused sought for temporary bail are not satisfactory because as per the report of the IO, it prima-facie appears that elder son of the applicant/accused is available who can arrange the essential needs of the family of the applicant/accused. Further, it also appears from the record that the earlier regular bail application of the applicant-accused came to be rejected by this Court and this fact is required to be considered. Further, the applicant/accused is involved in a very serious offence of murder and if he may be enlarged on temporary bail, he is likely to put in danger to the complainant as well as prosecution witnesses and evidences and it is also likely to jump out the bail and will not available at the time of trial. Therefore, considering the seriousness and gravity of offence, it does not inspire the confidence of this court to exercise the judicial discretion in favour of the present applicant-accused and therefore, in the interest of justice, following order is passed.
