

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT - 1

The Ld. Advocate for the Complainant has submitted withdrawal pursis. The withdrawal pursis is signed by the complainant and his Ld. Advocate. The complainant does not want to proceed with the case as the dispute has been settled between the parties to the present criminal proceeding. After having heard the complainant, it becomes clear that the complainant wants to withdraw proceedings against the accused unconditionally. Therefore, the complainant is allowed to withdraw present criminal case and hence, this criminal case is disposed of as withdrawn today in the National Lok Adalat.
