Re: Application for regular bail under Section 483 of the BNSS.

Appearance:

Mr. D.C. Parmar Id. Advocate for the Applicant

Mr. J.S. Gadhvi learned A.P.P. for the State.

J U D G M E N T

- 01. The applicants - accused have filed the present application under section 483 of the BNSS to get the bail in connection with the offence registered at Vasad Police Station I C.R. No. 11215038260327/2026 under Section 115 (2), 118 (2), 352, 351 (3) and 54 of the BNS.
- 02. Learned Advocate for the applicant - accused has submitted that, the applicant - accused were innocent and have played no role in the alleged offences and falsely implicated in the offence. Applicant were arrested on 28/06/2026 and since then they were in judicial custody. Applicants have never scolded or beaten the victim. Victim has sustained simple injuries, just to pressurize the applicants-accused, he remained as indoor patient. Initial investigation has been completed and applicants have given full co-operation to the IO. The offence is triable by JMFC. Applicant are ready and willing to abide with all the terms and conditions imposed on them if he is released on regular bail. Relying on all the above submissions he has prayed to grant the present application.

- 03. Ld. APP for the State has filed affidavit of the IO and argued that prima-facie all applicants were involved in offence and they have caused injuries to the injured victim and if they he will be released on bail again they will commit similar type of offence. Looking to the seriousness of offence, the present application is required to be dismissed. Also complainant filed affidavit vide Exh.6 through his advocate which also taken into consideration.
- 04. In the present matter, I have heard the Learned Advocate for the parties, perused the police papers and affidavit filed by the Investigating Officer. Moreover, the police has already recorded the statement of witnesses and also recovered the muddamal weapon used in commission of offence. The injured victim has been discharged from the hospital and out of danger. There is nothing more to be recovered or discovered from the applicant/accused. The applicant has assured to comply with all conditions imposed on him. The charges leveled against the applicant-accused are triable by JMFC Court. In the said set of facts and circumstances, nature of offence as well as considering the provisions of punishment for the alleged offences committed by the applicant - accused, and also considering the ratio laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra and Ors., V/s CBI, reported in 2012 (1) SCC 40 as well as in the case of Gudikanti Narasimuhulu And Ors vs Public Prosecutor, High Court of Andhra Pradesh reported in 1978 (1) SCC 240. Obviously, the conclusion of trial will take time and keeping the accused behind the bars is nothing but amounts to pre-trial conviction and therefore, considering the celebrated principle of bail jurisprudence is that “bail is rule and jail is exception” as well as concept of personal liberty guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, present application deserves consideration. Thus, in my humble view the applicant-accused is required to be released on regular bail inflicting strict conditions. Hence, I pass the following in the interest of justice.

: O R D E R :

- [a] The present application of the applicant is hereby ordered to be allowed.
