

Order Below Exh.1 in Regular Civil Appeal No. 77 of 2016

Today, when the matter is called out, neither the appellants nor their advocate are present. It appears from the record that appellants and their advocates have not remained present since many adjournments. Therefore, it appears that the appellants are not interested to proceed further with the appeal.

In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the present appeal deserves to be dismissed for default. Hence, the following order is passed.

ORDER

1. The present appeal is hereby ordered to be dismissed for default.
2. R&P be sent back to the learned trial court forthwith.
3. No order as to costs.
