JUDGMENT

[1.0] This application is filed by the applicants under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for regular bail in connection with F.I.R. registered as A Part (First) C.R. No.11198042260122/2026 with Palitana Town Police Station, Bhavnagar for the offence punishable under Sections 115(2), 118(1), 118(2), 125(A), 352, 54 of B.N.S. and Section 135 of G.P.Act.

[2.0] It is stated by the applicants that, the applicants have been arrested by the police in connection of the afore-stated offence on 28.02.2026 and produced before the Hon'ble Court on 28.02.2026 and Hon'ble Court has sent them to the judicial custody and since then they are in judicial custody and hence, the present application has been filed under Section 483 of B.N.S.S.

[3.0] On service of notice to the opponent, Ld. A.P.P. Mr. S.S.Bhatt appeared on behalf of State and investigating officer has filed affidavit in support of the complaint and also submitted police papers.

[4.0] Ld. Advocate for the applicants has submitted that the applicants have no connection with the alleged offence and that they have been falsely implicated with the present offence. It is further submitted that there is no allegation against the present applicants that they have quarreled and abused the complainant and thrown the stones on the complainant and sustained serious injuries. Further it is submitted that the victim is already discharged from the hospital and he is out of danger. It is further submitted that the the conclusion of trial of the alleged offence is likely to take long time and the denial of bail to the applicants would amount to pre-trial punishment, which is alien to criminal jurisprudence. It is submitted that the present applicants are a permanent residence at the address given in the cause title and has a family to support and is not likely to jump bail or evade trial. It is submitted that the applicants undertake to abide by all or any condition that may be imposed by the Court in bail order and considering all the above factor it has been prayed that the present applicants may be enlarged on bail.

[5.0] On the other hand, learned A.P.P. appearing for the opponent-state has opposed the bail application and as per the averments of the affidavit further submits that there is prima facie case against the present applicants as alleged in the FIR. It is further submitted that they have quarreled and abused the complainant and thrown the stones on the complainant and sustained serious injuries and thereby committed the alleged offence. Further submits that in this case, investigation is going on. Therefore, if the present applicant is released on bail, there are chances of tampering with the prosecution evidence. Hence present application may be rejected.

[6.0] I have heard the Ld. advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers.

[7.0] On perusal of the FIR, police papers, affidavit filed by the Investigating Officer and submission of the advocates for the either parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation made against the applicants as well as the role attributed to the present applicants, it appears that allegation against the present applicants that they have quarreled and abused the complainant and thrown the stones on the complainant and sustained serious injuries and thereby committed the alleged offence. Further it is clear from the record that the complainant/victim is discharge from the hospital and now he is out of danger. It is further appears that the investigation against the present applicants is almost over and further custodial interrogation of the accused is not required in this matter, hence under the said circumstances this court is of the opinion that present applicants deserve regular bail.

[7.1] Considering the role of the applicant, quantum of punishment and the fact that applicant is having permanent resident of address given in the cause title of the application and without discussing the evidence in detail, considering the settled position of law as well judicial precedents with regards to grant of bail in cases of AIR 1984 (SC) 372 "Bhagirathsinh Jadeja Vs. State of Gujrat" ; (2012) 1 SCC 40 "Sanjay Chandra Vs. CBI" and Special Leave to Appeal (Cri.) 5191 of 2021 "Satender Kumar Antil Vs. CBI & Ors." prima facie, this court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion in favour of the present applicants.

[7.2] Further the objection and apprehension raised by the prosecution against the grant of bail can be addressed and taken care of by imposing certain conditions. Hence, considering the quantum of the punishment in the alleged offences as well as in order to assure the presence of the applicants for trial and to avoid any hindrance to the prosecution, it would be appropriate to impose certain conditions. Therefore, this Court is of the view that it is a fit case to exercise discretion to grant bail to the present applicants subject to certain conditions. Therefore, the following order is passed.
