

:: ORDER BELOW EXH.1 IN CRIMINAL APPEAL NO. 161 OF 2026 ::

1. The present appeal has been preferred by the appellant against the Judgment and Order passed by the Ld. 2nd Addl Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bhavnagar in Criminal Case No. 11424/ 2025 dated 01/05/2026, under Section – 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act, sentencing the original accused (present appellant) to undergo six month of simple imprisonment and also directed to deposit the double cheque amount by way of fine.
2. Pending the Appeal, the appellant and the respondent (original complainant) arrived to a settlement and a Compromise Plea to that effect is produced vide Exh.7. The Compromise Plea is taken on record and complainant stated that, he has no objection, if the Judgment of the Ld. Trial Court convicting the accused, is set – aside.
3. The appellant and the respondent are present before the Court and they have confirmed the settlement before the Court.
4. Under the circumstances, in view of compromise arrived between the parties, the Judgment passed by the Ld. 2nd Addl Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bhavnagar in Criminal Case No. 11424/ 2025 dated 01/05/2026, is hereby set – aside, and the appellant (original accused) is hereby acquitted.
5. At this stage a reference is required to be made to the ratio laid down in the case of Madhya Pradesh State Legal Services Authority v/s Prateek Jain, 2014 (10) SCC 690, wherein it has been held that, if the Court finds that the settlement is a result of positive attitude of the parties, then in such cases, the Court can always reduce the costs by imposing minimal costs or even waive the same. Since, this Court finds that the above referred settlement is a result of positive attitude of the parties, this Court thinks it fit to waive the cost.

6. The amount of fine, if any, paid by the accused in the Ld. Trial Court, is hereby ordered to be refunded to the present appellant.
7. Yadi of the order sent to Ld. Trial Court for necessary action.
