

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT 01

1. Today, when called out, neither plaintiff nor the learned counsel for the plaintiff is present.
2. The present Execution Application has been filed by the Decree Holder-PGVCL for recovery of dues.
3. This Court had issued summons time and again to the defendant, however, the very summonses and attachment warrants have been returned with an endorsement of the Bailiff that the defendant is not available.
4. Though time and again this Court had informed the Decree Holder to file an affidavit under Order 21 Rule 11A stating the grounds of arrest, they have thoroughly failed to do so.
5. Further, no application under Order 21 Rule 12 has been given by the Decree Holder.
6. This Court has given a number of opportunities to the Decree Holder to file an affidavit and to proceed further with the matter, however, the plaintiff has whiled away the time. This Court has waited for about six months, however, no steps have been taken by the Decree Holder. Hence, this Court is left with no option but to dismiss the present Execution Application for default and pass the following order :

:: ORDER ::

The present application for Execution is hereby dismissed for default. There shall be, however, no order as to costs.
