Indusind Bank Vs Shree International

Present: Sh. Ankush Sharma Advocate for the complainant.

Non Bailable warrants issued against accused not received back. Perusal of file shows that several times the process has been issued by this Court through summons, bailable warrants and non bailable warrants but the presence of accused not procured. In view of the directions contained in letter dated 02.04.2014 of the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court, whereby the trial courts have been directed to ensure the service of the accused within 3 months from the date of summoning order of the accused and to conclude the trial within six months from the date of filing the complaint. However, till the presence of accused has not procured. It appears that the appearance of above accused cannot be procured through non bailable warrants and more coercive methods are required to be adopted to expedite the proceedings of the present case. Accordingly, in consonance of directions of the Hon'ble High Court in the above said letter, it is expedient to issue the proclamation against the accused by way of publication in the newspaper 'Desh Sewak' having circulation in the area where the accused ordinarily resides/work for gain etc. on filing of requisite fee within five days for 03.10.2023.
