

Order Below Exhibit- 1

Neither the plaintiff nor advocate on behalf of plaintiff is present today. Even there is no application for adjournment from either side. Perused the proceeding in the matter Issues were framed on 11/09/2018. The suit is old one and reasonable opportunities have been given to the parties to proceed with the matter. The plaintiff did not produced any evidence. Under these circumstances it appears that the plaintiffs or any other person from plaintiffs side are not interested to proceed with the matter. If the plaintiffs or any other person from plaintiffs side has interested to proceed with the matter he would have remained present and would have produced his evidence .As he has not done so this court does not find any justifiable reason to adjourn the matter further. Hence, the suit is hereby dismissed for default.

No order as to costs.
