- (1) The applicant has filed this application under Order-33 Rule-1 of Civil Procedure Code for permission to sue as an indigent person and he has also filed an affidavit for the same.
- (2) Notice has been duly served to the D.G.P., Veraval, who on behalf of the State has filed the written objection vide Exh. 6, wherein most of the facts as mentioned by the applicant has been denied and also contended that the present application of the applicant is not legal & proper and required to be dismissed.
- (3) I have heard the Learned Advocate for the applicant and Learned D.G.P., Veraval on behalf of the opponent - The State.

(4) Having regard to the pleadings of the parties, considering the evidence on record and the arguments advanced on behalf of the parties, it is satisfactorily proved that the present applicant has no sufficient means to pay requisite court fees payable in his claim for compensation. In view of these facts and according to the ratio laid down in case of Gulabsang Meruji Vs. Jayantilal Shankarlal Brahmin & Others, reported in I-1999 A.C.C. 547, I am of the opinion that, this application is required to be allowed as prayed for in the interest of justice, therefore, the following order is passed.

-:: O R D E R ::-

- ⇒ This application is hereby allowed.
- ⇒ The applicant is permitted to file the compensation petition as indigent person in forma pauperism.
