ORDER BELOW EXH.5 IN REGULAR CIVIL SUIT NO.64 OF 2011.

On going through the record, it appears that the suit is of the year 2011 i.e. the suit is more than three old. It further appears that the matter is pending for hearing of the application Exh.5 i.e. the application for interim injunction, since long. It further appears from the record that, time and again, the parties have sought adjournments for one reason or the other. Today, neither the learned advocate for the plaintiff nor the learned advocate for the defendant, is present, though repeatedly called out. Thus, the above conduct of the parties leads me to believe and hold that neither party is interested in proceeding with the hearing of the application Exh.5. Under these circumstances, instead of deciding the application in favour of either side, I deem it appropriate to pass the following order:

ORDER

The present application Exh.5 is directed to be heard and decided along with the suit. There shall be no order as to costs.

Place: Kodinar.

Date: 11-12-2014.

(Hitesh Jayantilal Tanna)
Additional Civil Judge, Kodinar.

Judge Code: GJ00955.
