

REGULAR CIVIL APPEAL NO 77 OF 2014

ORDER BELOW EXH. 1

1. When the appeal is called out, neither the appellant nor the learned Advocate for the appellants is present nor is there any application seeking adjournment. This position has remained the same for the last many occasions.

2. On going through the record and proceedings of this appeal, it is made out that the present appeal is pending for joining the legal heirs of the deceased respondent. The declaration of the death of the deceased respondent was made on 23-03-2021 vide Exh 7. Still, the heirs of the deceased respondent are not brought on record and the proceedings have remained at the same stage for the last many occasions.

3. Considering the aforesaid proceedings in the appeal, it, thus, appears that the appellant is not interested to proceed with the appeal any more. Under these circumstances, there is no justifiable reason to adjourn the proceedings in this appeal any further. As a result, the present appeal stands dismissed for default.
