

CRIMINAL APPEAL NO 207 OF 2025

ORDER BELOW EXH. 5

1. Perused the application. Heard learned Advocate for the appellant – accused. Considered the provisions of Section 430(1) of the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.

2. The appellant – accused has been convicted by the learned 7th Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jamnagar for the offence punishable under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (for short, “the Act”) in Criminal Case No. 5919 of 2020 by judgment and order dated 01-04-2025. Upon such conviction, he has been sentenced to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of 2 years and to pay compensation of Rs. 36,61,000/- to the complainant within 90 days from the date of judgment and order and in default of payment of compensation, to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of 4 months. Against the said judgment and order, the appellant – accused has preferred the present appeal. Along with the appeal, the appellant-accused has made the present application for suspension of sentence imposed upon him.

3. The offence under Section 138 of the Act is bailable. The accused has been sentenced to simple imprisonment for a term of 2 years. The sentence has been stayed by the learned Trial Court for a period of 30 days from 01-04-2025. In the case of Atul @ Ashutosh Vs State of Madhya Pradesh, Criminal Appeal No.579 of 2024, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has noted that, when there is a fixed term sentence and especially when the appeal is not likely to be heard before completing the entire period of sentence, normally suspension of sentence and bail should be granted. Moreover, in the case of Satyendra Kumar Mehra @ Satendera Kumar Mehra Versus State of Jharkhand, 2018 (0) AIJEL-SC 61960, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has clarified that, the Appellate Court, while exercising power under Section 389 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, can suspend the sentence of imprisonment as well as of fine without any condition or with conditions.

4. Further, as noted earlier, the present application is made in an appeal against the judgment and order of conviction in an offence punishable under Section 138 of the Act. Under such circumstances, Section 148 of the Act empowers the Appellate Court to order the appellant - accused to deposit such sum which shall be a minimum of twenty per cent of the fine or compensation awarded by the learned Trial Court within sixty days from the date of the order. In the present case, the compensation awarded by the Trial Court is Rs. 36,61,000/-. Therefore, it would be justified if the appellant -accused is directed to deposit 20% of Rs 36,61,000/- which comes to Rs.7,32,200/- rounded off to Rs 7,33,000/- within a period of 60 days from today.

5. Considering the aforesaid discussion, I pass the following order:

ORDER

1. The present application is allowed.
2. The execution of the sentence passed by the learned 7th Additional Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jamnagar, in judgment and order dated 01/04/2025 in Criminal Case No. 5919 of 2020 is suspended.
3. The appellant - accused stands released on bail subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) He shall furnish bond in the sum of Rs. 8,00,000/- (Rupees:- Eight lakh only) with one surety of like amount before the learned Trial Court.
 - (b) He shall deposit an amount of Rs. 7,33,000/- as compensation before this Court within a period of 60 days from today.

(c) He shall remain present on all the dates notified for the appeal either personally or through his authorized Advocate.
