

Order below exhibit 1

The complaint has been filed in the year 2023. Since the very inception of the case, the complainant has failed to secure the presence of the accused before the court. The summons have returned unserved for several times. Thereafter, application for serving the notice through registered A.D. was filed which was allowed. However, the said notice also could not be served. Since then, the matter was taken for furnishing new address of the accused. Looking to the proceeding of the case, the matter is pending since long for furnishing new address of the accused. The complainant has failed in furnishing the same. The presence of the accused could not be secured in spite of several efforts by the court and the fact that the complainant has failed to get any information about the whereabouts of the accused; this court is of the view that no purpose is being served in prolonging the matter without and fruitful outcome and the situation does not require the court to give any more adjournment to the complainant. Hence, following order is passed:
