

ORDER BELOW EX.01

1. The Present Execution Petition has been filed by the applicant against the Opponents for recovery of amount.
2. At the time of call out of this matter, Ld. Advocate for the applicant alongwith the applicant is present before this Court. However, Opponents are not present.
3. On perusal of the record, it transpires that the notice of this matter has been served upon the Opponent and thereafter order to issue recovery warrant has been passed against him. Thereafter, when the baillif of the Court went for execution of the attachment warrant, he has reported that the opponent has no property in his name which can be attached.
4. Further, the Applicant/ Ld. Advocate of the applicant is not in a position to declare, property of Opponent, which is required to be attached or from which the amount due under decree can be recovered.
5. Under circumstances, when the applicant is not in a position to provide details of the properties of Opponent from which the amount due under decree can be recovered, in that situation this matter could not be proceeded further and even if this matter is kept pending, there is no possibility of further progress in this matter.
6. Under the circumstances, it appears that applicant is not interested to proceed further with this petition.

Thus, in view of the above position, this Court has no alternative, but to pass the following order:

:- ORDER :-
