

Order below Exh.1 in Criminal Appeal No.119/2025

- (1) The present Criminal Appeal is preferred against the Judgment and order of conviction dated 04/10/2025 passed in Criminal Case No.7643 of 2021 whereby the Learned Principal Senior Civil Judge & Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Porbandar has convicted the present appellant under section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act with one year of simple imprisonment and directed him to pay an amount of Rs.10,00,000/- as compensation to the complainant.
- (2) Against the aforesaid Judgment and Order, the present appellant/original accused preferred the instant Criminal Appeal. The accused/appellant and respondent/complainant appeared along with their Advocates and filed a settlement memo vide Ex.21 stating that they have settled the matter for full and final settlement amount of Rs.5,00,000/- and as per the settlement, Rs.1,00,000/- has already been deposited by the accused/appellant, whereas for remaining amount of Rs.4,00,000/- the accused/appellant has given a cheque No.193606 for Rs.4,00,000/- post dated 10.12.2026 to the respondent/complainant against which the accused/appellant will pay the total amount of Rs.4,00,000/- in piecemeal manner till 10.12.2026 and the right of respondent/complainant for filing complaint against dishonour of the above mentioned cheque will be open, if any. It is also submitted that the original complainant does not wish to contest the matter anymore and has no objection if the judgment of conviction and fine passed against the accused/appellant is set aside and he will be acquitted.

- (3) It is prayed by the Ld. Advocate for the appellant that the present appeal should be disposed of in view of the settlement and the fact of payment being made to the respondent/original complainant and as compounding of offence is permitted in appeal as well.
- (4) I have heard both the parties and perused the record of the case including the settlement memo filed by the parties. It is not in dispute that the parties have amicably settled their dispute regarding the dishonoured cheque forming part of complaint wherein the order of conviction was recorded. Considering the fact that original complainant/present respondent has no objection if the present appeal is allowed by setting aside the impugned order and also considering the observation of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of M/S. METERS AND INSTRUMENTS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS. KANCHAN MEHTA, that the object of the provision being primarily compensatory, punitive element being mainly with the object of enforcing the compensatory element, compounding at the initial stage has to be encouraged but is not debarred at later stage subject to appropriate compensation as may be found acceptable to the parties or the Court. Further, the guidelines in Damodar (Supra) have been held to be flexible as may be necessary in a given situation as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter between Madhya Pradesh State Legal Services Authority versus Prateek Jain and Anr. reported in (2014) 10 SCC 690. Accordingly, the instant criminal appeal is being disposed of in terms of the settlement memo.
