

ORDER BELOW EXH. 4 IN MACMA NO. 132/2026

1. By way of present application, applicant no. 3 namely, Ankitababen submitts that she voluntarily relinquishes her right in the compensation amount payable to her in the MACP no. 899/2016. It is submitted that she is happily married and is not facing any financial hardship whereas, applicant no. 2 i.e. her mother is in financial constraint thus, she is in genuine need of the compensation amount awarded in MACP no. 899/2016 therefore, the compensation amount falling to her share may be released in favor of her mother namely, Kailashben Dipakbhai Pardava (Sarvaiya). In support, applicant no. 3 has filed affidavit on record.

2. Applicant no. 3 is present in Court along with her learned Advocate. On inquiry, she has stated on similar lines as mentioned in the affidavit. Hence, it appears that applicant no. 3 voluntarily intends to relinquish her share in the compensation amount in favor of applicant no. 2 without any coercion or undue influence. Accordingly, application at Exh. 4 is allowed and the compensation amount falling to the share of applicant no. 3 shall be released in favor of applicant no. 2 in accordance with law.
