[1] The brief facts of the case is that deceased Ramaben Dhirajlal Joshi W/o. Dalpatrai Thakar expired on 11/01/2014 and present applicants are administrators of the said deceased. Deceased had passed away after making will in respect of her immovable and movable properties on date 05/04/2010. Applicants had not filed any application before any other court for obtaining Letter of Administration mentioned of the deceased Ramaben Dhirajlal Joshi W/o. Dalpatrai Thakar. And, present applicants preferred an application to issue Letter of Administration under the provisions of The Indian Succession Act, in the name of the applicants in respect of the immovable and movable property of deceased as mentioned in Schedule at Mark 1/1.

[2] Now looking to the present application, the public notice inviting objection to the grant of Letter of Administration published in daily newspaper 'Aajkaal' on 19/12/2025 and the copy of said newspaper is produced on record vide Ex. 14. In the present case, the applicants have sought to obtain the Letter of Administration of the immovable and movable property of the deceased in view of the Indian Succession Act, which provides for the Letter of Administration to declare them the administrators of the property of the deceased.

[4] Now looking to the present application and affidavits and documents filed by the applicants it appears that other heirs of deceased have given their consent for issuing Letter of Administration in favour of the applicants. Therefore, taking into consideration, all above affidavits and documents, it is clear that no objections or any dispute will be raised by any heirs when order is passed by this Court to issue Letter of Administration to the applicants. Therefore in view of above discussion, there is no reason to disbelieve the version of the applicants. Thus, applicants are rightful to get Letter of Administration in respect of immovable and movable property of the said deceased.
