

State Vs. Balram Khosla.

Present : Shri Nirmal Singh Aulakh, Advocate counsel for the applicant Balram Khosla @ Babu.
Shri Gurinderbir Singh, Additional PP for the State.
Complainant Preeti with counsel Shri Mukesh Nanda, Advocate.

ORDER

Today complainant Preeti has come present and made the statement that she is residing happily alongwith her husband Balram Khosla and she has no objection if the anticipatory bail application filed by him in this case is allowed. Similarly applicant-accused Balram Khosla @ Babu has made the statement that he is residing happily alongwith his wife Preeti and he undertakes that he will keep her happily in the matrimonial home.

IO of the case ASI Inderjit Singh who has appeared in the court today has stated that the applicant has not joined the investigation in this case as yet. From the perusal of the file it has come to my notice that vide order dated 24.05.2021 passed by Shri Hardip Singh, Additional Sessions Judge, Amritsar (Duty), the applicant was granted interim bail with directions to join the investigation but due to clerical mistake, the next date of hearing for report regarding compliance of interim directions could not be mentioned in the said order and the file was ordered to be consigned to the record room whereas, on the index of the file next date of hearing was mentioned as 04.06.2021. The mistake is clerical one and the same is ordered to be rectified accordingly. Now the applicant is directed to join the investigation as per order dated 24.05.2021 passed by the court of Shri Hardip Singh, Additional Sessions Judge, Amritsar (Duty). The bail application stands adjourned to 19.07.2021 for compliance report of interim bail directions and for final arguments.
