

CRIMINAL CASE NO.: 2066 OF 2023.

ORDER BELOW EXH.: 66:-

Read. Heard. Perused endorsement by Ld. Counsel for the complainant. This is wholly misconceived application at the instance of the accused, solely for delaying or protracting trial of this case.

By order dated: 13.02.2025, Ld. Counsel for the accused was directed to place on record under which provision of law he has given this application; today when matter was being heard, he could not point out any such provision of law and/or any ratio of law settled by Hon'ble Higher Courts of this country.

This court also, at this stage is under legal obligation to take note of order dated: 10.01.2025 passed below application - Exh.: 54 - which is yet to be complied with by the accused person.

As such since Ld. Counsel for the accused has failed to provide any legal assistance to the court in coming to just conclusion as regards prayed made or relief sought in this application; it clearly appears that present application is given solely for delaying trial of this case pending since 2023; therefore, present application being devoid of any merit is rejected with cost which is quantified at Rs.10,000=00 [Rupees ten thousand] to be credited to State Exchequer.
