| 2.             | As per final order |

REASONS

(6) Before determination of this case, it would be necessary to refer some of the pronouncements governing the determination of an application filed under section-14 of the SARFAESI Act, 2002. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in "Standard Chartered Bank v. V. Noble Kumar" reported in (2013) 9 SCC 620 has held as under;

21. Under the scheme of Section 14, a secured creditor who desires to seek the assistance of the State's coercive power for obtaining possession of the secured asset is required to make a request in writing to the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or District Magistrate within whose jurisdiction, the secured asset is located praying that the secured asset and other documents relating thereto may be taken possession thereof. The language of Section 14 originally enacted purportedly obliged the Magistrate receiving a request under Section 14 to take possession of the secured asset and documents, if any, related thereto in terms of the request received by him without any further scrutiny of the matter.

22. However, the Bombay High Court in Trade Well v. Indian Bank [2007 Cri LJ 2544 (Bom)] opined:

“2. ... CMM/DM acting under Section 14 of the NPA Act is not required to give notice either to the borrower or to the third party.

3. He has to only verify from the bank or financial institution whether notice under Section 13(2) of the NPA Act is given or not and whether the secured assets fall within his jurisdiction. There is no adjudication of any kind at this stage.

4. It is only if the above conditions are not fulfilled that the CMM/DM can refuse to pass an order under Section 14 of the NPA Act by recording that the above conditions are not fulfilled. If these two conditions are fulfilled, he cannot refuse to pass an order under Section 14.”(emphasis supplied).

The said judgment was followed by the Madras High Court in Indian Overseas Bank v. Sree Aravindh Steels Ltd. [AIR 2009 Mad 10] Subsequently, Parliament inserted a proviso to Section 14(1) [“Provided that any application by the secured creditor shall be accompanied by an affidavit duly affirmed by the authorised officer of the secured creditor, declaring that—(i) the aggregate amount of financial assistance granted and the total claim of the bank as on the date of filing the application;(ii) the borrower has created security interest over various properties and that the bank or financial institution is holding a valid and subsisting security interest over such properties and the claim of the bank or financial institution is within the limitation period;(iii) the borrower has created security interest over various properties giving the details of properties referred to in sub-clause (ii) above;(iv) the borrower has committed default in repayment of the financial assistance granted aggregating the specified amount;(v) consequent upon such default in repayment of the financial assistance the account of the borrower has been classified as a nonperforming asset;(vi) affirming that the period of sixty days' notice as required by the provisions of subsection (2) of Section 13, demanding payment of the defaulted financial assistance has been served on the borrower;(vii) the objection or representation in reply to the notice received from the borrower has been considered by the secured creditor and reasons for nonacceptance of such objection or representation had been communicated to the borrower; (viii) the borrower has not made any repayment of the financial assistance in spite of the above notice and the authorised officer is, therefore, entitled to take possession of the secured assets under the provisions of subsection (4) of Section 13 read with Section 14 of the principal Act;(ix) that the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder had been complied with:Provided further that on receipt of the affidavit from the authorised officer, the District Magistrate or the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, as the case may be, shall after satisfying the contents of the affidavit pass suitable orders for the purpose of taking possession of the secured assets:Provided also that the requirement of filing affidavit stated in the first proviso shall not apply to proceeding pending before any District Magistrate or the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, as the case may be, on the date of commencement of this Act.”] and also subsection (1A) “14. (1A) The District Magistrate or the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate may authorise any officer subordinate to him—(i) to take possession of such assets and documents relating thereto; and(ii) to forward such assets and documents to the secured creditor.(2) For the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of subsection (1), the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or the District Magistrate may take or cause to be taken such steps and use, or cause to be used, such force, as may, in his opinion, be necessary.(3) No act of t Indian Bank v. D. Visalakshi, (2019) 20 SCC 47 he Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or the District Magistrate any officer authorised by the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or District Magistrate done in pursuance of this section shall be called in question in any court or before any authority.”] by Act 1 of 2013.

25. The satisfaction of the Magistrate contemplated under the second proviso to Section 14(1) necessarily requires the Magistrate to examine the factual correctness of the assertions made in such an affidavit but not the legal niceties of the transaction. It is only after recording of his satisfaction the Magistrate can pass appropriate orders regarding taking of possession of the secured asset.

(7) The Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat has in "IDBI Bank Ltd through Authorized Signatory Vs. District Magistrate" reported at 2011 SCC OnLine Guj 1280 held as under;

5. So far as the first principal contention of the petitioner is concerned, the same merits consideration because the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate and the District Magistrate, under Section 14 of the Securitisation Act are not empowered to decide the question of legality and propriety of any of the actions taken by the secured creditor under Section 13(4), which can be assailed under Section 17 of the Securitisation Act by the aggrieved person. Under subsection (3) of Section 14, the act of the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or District Magistrate done in pursuance of the said section cannot be called in question in any court or before any authority. From the aforesaid provisions of law, it is evident that Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or District Magistrate is bound to assist the secured creditor in taking possession of the secured assets.

6. The Authority who is called upon to act under Section 14 of the Securitisation Act can only assist, nay, is bound to assist the secured creditor in taking possession of the secured asset. As the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate and District Magistrate under Section 14 is not empowered to decide the question of legality and propriety of any of the actions taken by the secured creditor under Section 13(4), which may be assailed under Section 17 of the Act by the aggrieved person, under subsection (3) of Section 14 of the Securitisation Act, the act of the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or District Magistrate done in pursuance of said Section cannot be called in question in any court or before any authority. It is evident from the provisions of law that the District Magistrate while bound to assist the secured creditor in taking possession of the secured assets and to take the possession of the documents relating thereto and forward such assets and documents to the secured creditor, he is not empowered to decide the question of genuinity or propriety of such documents, including the document signed or agreed between the borrower and the secured creditor.

(8) The Hon'ble Supreme Court has in Indian Bank v. D. Visalakshi reported in (2019) 20 SCC 47 held as under;

52. Applying the principle underlying this decision, it must follow that substitution of functionaries (CMM as CJM) qua the administrative and executive or so to say nonjudicial functions discharged by them in light of the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, would not be inconsistent with Section 14 of the 2002 Act; nay, it would be a permissible approach in the matter of interpretation thereof and would further the legislative intent having regard to the subject and object of the enactment. That would be a meaningful, purposive and contextual construction of Section 14 of the 2002 Act, to include CJM as being competent to assist the secured creditor to take possession of the secured asset.

54. To sum up, we hold that CJM is equally competent to deal with the application moved by the secured creditor under Section 14 of the 2002 Act.

- (9) Considering the material produced by the applicant and perusing the affidavit submitted by the authorised officer of the applicant, it transpires to this Court that the applicant has satisfied the requirement of section-14 of the SARFAESI Act, so as to entitle it to have assistance of this Court. The secured asset has been situated within the jurisdiction of this Court. As per the pronouncement of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Indian Bank Case (supra), the Chief Judicial Magistrate is also empowered to entertain the application filed under Section-14 of the SARFAESI Act. So, in view of the aforesaid reasons and discussion, my finding on issue no.1 is in affirmative. So far as to issue no.2 is concerned, I hereby pass following final order in the interest of justice;
