APPLICANT: AJAY RAMESHBHAI VASAVA
Aged: 38 Yrs., Occupation: Business
R/o. Juna Mosdha Road, Mosdha,
Ta. Dediypada, Dist. Chhotaudepur.

V E R S U S

OPPONENT: The State of Gujarat

Appearance:

Mr.D.J.Rathod : Learned Advocate for the applicant-accused.
Mr.C.G.Patel : Learned APP for the State.

Application seeking Regular Bail
under Section 483 of the BNSS

--: O R D E R :--

1. By way of this application preferred under Section 483 of Bharatiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita (for short “BNSS”), the present applicant–accused has prayed to enlarge him on regular bail in connection with the F.I.R. bearing C.R.No.11197057260059/2026 registered at Waghodiya Police Station, Vadodara Rural, for the offences punishable under Sections 65(a), 65(e), 116B, 81, 83, 98(2) of the Gujarat Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2017 and under Sections 111(2)B, 111(3)(4) of BNS.
2. On service of notice, Mr.C.G.Patel, learned Assistant Public Prosecutor, appeared for the State and filed affidavit of the Investigating Officer at Exhibit 5.
3. Heard learned advocate for the applicant–accused as well as learned APP for the State.
4. Learned advocate appearing for the applicant–accused has reiterated the grounds stated in the application and prayed to release the present applicant–accused on bail. He has further submitted that the applicant–accused is innocent and he is not involved in the offence but falsely implicated in the offence. He has further submitted that the applicant–accused had filed Cr.M.A. no.71/2026 in this Court for temporary bail which was granted and after completion of period of temporary bail, the applicant–accused had surrendered before the jail authority. He has further submitted that investigation of this case is completed and chargesheet has been filed by the investigating officer which is numbered as Criminal Case no.641/2026. He has further submitted that a co-accused Paresh Nareshbhai Nayka had filed a bail application being R/Cr.M.A. (For Regular Bail - Before Chargesheet) No.4126/2026 before the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat which was granted and other co-accused had filed Cr.M.A. no.62/2026, 63/2026, 76/2026, 94/2026, 96/2026 & 103/2026 which had been granted and therefore, the present applicant-accused should also be enlarged on bail on the ground of parity. He has further submitted that trial of the case may take long time and if the applicant-accused is not released on bail, it may amount to pre-trial conviction. He has further submitted that the applicant-accused is permanently residing at the address mentioned in cause title and therefore, there is no possibility of his fleeing. He has further submitted that the applicant-accused has responsibility of his family and if he is not released on bail, his family will have to suffer hardship. The applicant-accused is ready to abide by conditions that may be imposed by the Court and therefore, he has requested this Court to enlarge the present applicant-accused on regular bail on appropriate conditions.

5. Referring to the affidavit of I.O., the learned APP for the State has submitted that looking to the nature of the offence and the involvement of the applicant-accused in the offence, he should not be released on bail. He has also submitted that as there is prima facie case against the applicant-accused, the applicant-accused should not be released on bail. He has further submitted that huge quantity of IMFL has been recovered during the raid. He has further submitted that if the applicant-accused is released on bail, he may not remain present during the trial and the trial may be delayed unnecessarily. Hence, considering the nature and gravity of offence, the learned APP has requested to reject the present application.

6. Upon hearing learned advocates for the rival sides and going through the record, it is apparent that muddamal has already been recovered by the Investigating Officer and no further recovery or discovery from the present applicant-accused is pending. The investigating officer has filed charge-sheet in the Court. Further, the offences alleged against the applicant-accused are triable by the Court of learned Magistrate. Further, trial of the case may take long time and if the applicant-accused is not released on bail, it may amount to pre-trial conviction. Earlier, the applicant-accused was released on temporary bail and he had surrendered in time. Moreover, one co-accused has been enlarged on regular bail by the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat and some other co-accused have been enlarged on bail by this Court. Thus, in view of the above facts and circumstances and also on the ground of parity, it would be appropriate to exercise discretion in favour of the present applicant-accused. Hence, I pass the following order in the interest of justice.
