

Witness present and duly sworn on 11.02.2026.

Cross Examination by the learned Advocate for 2nd

Defendant :

My educational qualification is B.Com. I can write, read and understand English Language. To prepare the Legal notice, Complaint and my Affidavit by way of examination in chief, I have given instructions to my Advocate. I know the contents of the documents. I sworn my affidavit before the Court. It is true to suggest that whenever I affixed my signature in the document, I will read and understand the contents of the documents. It is true to suggest that the lease transaction in respect of the suit schedule property was taken place between myself and the 1st defendant. It is true to suggest that no transactions and negotiations took place between myself and the 2nd defendant in respect of the suit schedule property.

Further cross examination of the witness deferred at the request by the learned counsel for the 2nd defendant.

(Typed to my dictation in open Court, as the deposition in proceeded with).
