Further cross examination by Sri.HKR Advocate for Respondent:-

I am doing LLM course. At the time of accident, my brother did not possess a valid and effective DL. My father is the RC owner of the car in which my brother was proceeding. I did not remember in which company we obtained insurance for our car. We did not reimburse any repaired bills from our insurance company.

2. I do not know who had shifted my brother to the hospital. The number which mentioned in Ex.P-10 is my brother's friend number. It is true to suggest that my brother's friend immediately shifted to BGS hospital, Ramangara. It is true to suggest that my brother's friend had narrated history of accident to the doctors. I do not know as per Ex.P-10, my brother was driving the car.

3. It is true to suggest that if any person drives a vehicle without holding a DL, it is a punishable offence. It is false to suggest that my brother was driving the car under influence of alcohol and without holding valid DL, in a rash and negligent manner thereby the accident occurred. I lodged the complaint. At the time of lodging the complaint, my brother was in the hospital. Two persons i.e., my brother and Tejas were traveling in the car. Tejas was hospitalized thereby he was unable to lodge the complaint on the same day of the incident. No one had instructed me or given information to lodge complaint. It is false to suggest that my brother was driving the car, in order to suppress the said fact, an after thought, I lodged the false complaint on the next day of the incident as he was traveling in the back seat of the car. It is false to suggest that accident occurred due to negligence on the part of my brother and not on the part of driver of the offending vehicle.

4. It is true to suggest that Ex.P-22 is a interim bill. The hospital authority has not issued final bill. It is true to suggest that Ex.P-22 does not bear seal and signature of the hospital. It is true to suggest that Ex.P-22 serial no.2 is a interim advance bill. I did not enquire how much amount was due and paid for final amount. It is true to suggest that I have not produced any bills for having payment of Ex.P-22 Interim payment bill. I do not know the mode of payment of Ex.P-22. I can produce inpatient bill by obtaining from hospital authority. It is false to suggest that the advance amount of Rs.1,05,000/-was refunded by the Sparsh hospital,thereby I have not produced original for the same. It is false to suggest that we have not incurred Rs.6,50,000/- towards medical and Rs.2,00,000/- towards transportation.

5. The deceased was not an income tax assess e. I do not have any documents to substantiate that my brother was earning Rs.60,000/- per month. My family is not having ration card. My brother was an engineer graduate. I can produce study certificate of my brother. It is false to suggest that and I am deposing falsehood before this court as my brother was earning Rs.60,000/- per month.

6. My father was a retired employee and my mother is a house wife. It is false to suggest that in order to get higher compensation, I am deposing falsehood before this court by filing this false affidavit.
