

Witness present and duly sworn on 19.07.2025

Cross examination by Sri.MK Advocate for Respondent:-

I have not treated the petitioner. I have seen the discharge summary and wound certificate. The petitioner underwent surgery. I have not produced recent x-ray report. As per recent x-ray, the present status of petitioner is minimal mal united fracture. I do not know whether the petitioner underwent follow up treatment or not. It is true to suggest that the follow up treatment plays very important for this type of fractures. I suggested only for implants removal.

2. It is false to suggest that as per guidelines the question of assessment of disability would arise only after correction of mal union. It is true to suggest that the difficulties which I have stated in my affidavit, the same were not mentioned in the medical records. It is true to suggest that there is no fracture in the shoulder and elbow joints. The muscle power had improved but there is loss of one grade.

3. It is false to suggest that as petitioner is a young age, thereby the disability in co-ordinate activity does not arise. It is false to suggest that there is no restrictions in the movements. It is false to suggest that as per guidelines, 1/3rd disability should be taken for whole body. It is false to suggest that I deposed falsehood regarding involvement of right upper limb. It is false to suggest that the petitioner is suffering only 8-10% disability.

4. The petitioner can do his day to day activities. As per information of petitioner, the petitioner is working in Zomato. I do not have personal knowledge. It is false to suggest that the petitioner does not require further surgery and not require Rs.40,000/-. I have not given estimation. It is false to suggest that petitioner is a student, therefore the question of disability does not arise.

5. It is false to suggest that I am an incompetent person to assess the disability as I was not treated the petitioner. It is false to suggest that in order to help the petitioner, I am deposing falsehood before this court by filing this false affidavit.

Re-examination: Nil-

(Computerised to my dictation in the Open Court).

R.O.I. & A.C.

II Addl. Judge