

Complainant absent. The counsel for complainant prays for issue of summons to accused afresh.

Inspite of issuance summons repeatedly, the complainant not assisted in service of summons to accused and not taken proper steps against accused.

The said aspect indicates that the complainant might not be interested in effecting service of summons to the accused and to prosecute the this case.

There exist no valid grounds for again issuing the summons.

Hence, prayer of counsel for complainant is rejected as no grounds made out.

Hence, complaint is dismissed for default.