

CW-1 present through V.C. and submits that, CW-1 is ready to compound the offence.

Hence case refer to Lok-Adalath.

CJM, Bengaluru City.

Case called before Lok-Adalath.

CW-1 present through V.C.

Conciliation held, after discussion with conciliator CW-1 is agreed to compound the offence voluntarily.

Accordingly, CW-1 has filed applications u/s 359(1) of BNSS. The contents of application read over to her. She accepted the contents are true and correct. The offence is compoundable, there is no impediment to accept the compromise.

In view of the decision of Hon'ble High Court of Patna reported in 2007 CRI.L.J 1565 in between Mukesh D. Ambani -V/s- State of Bihar, it is not necessary for accused persons to appear in a case when complainant has filed application for compounding of offence.

Hence, the application is allowed.

Exercising power u/s.359(1) of BNSS the offence u/s 303(2) of BNS is hereby compounded.

Exercising power u/s.359(8) of BNS
Accused is acquitted of the offences
u/s. 303(2) of BNS.

Advocate Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator,
(Rangegowda C)
CJM, Bengaluru City